Where is the show?

I'm going to a performance today at a theatre called La Boite Theatre.

Before the Show

Before the show starts I might need to wait.

I can wait in the La Boite Theatre Foyer or outside in the courtyard.

There will be art and craft activities I can do while I wait.

Toilets

There are toilets at the theatre.

It's a good idea to go to the toilet before the show starts.

Break-Out Space

If I feel like I need to have a break I can go to the Break-Out Space.

It will be quiet and calm in there.

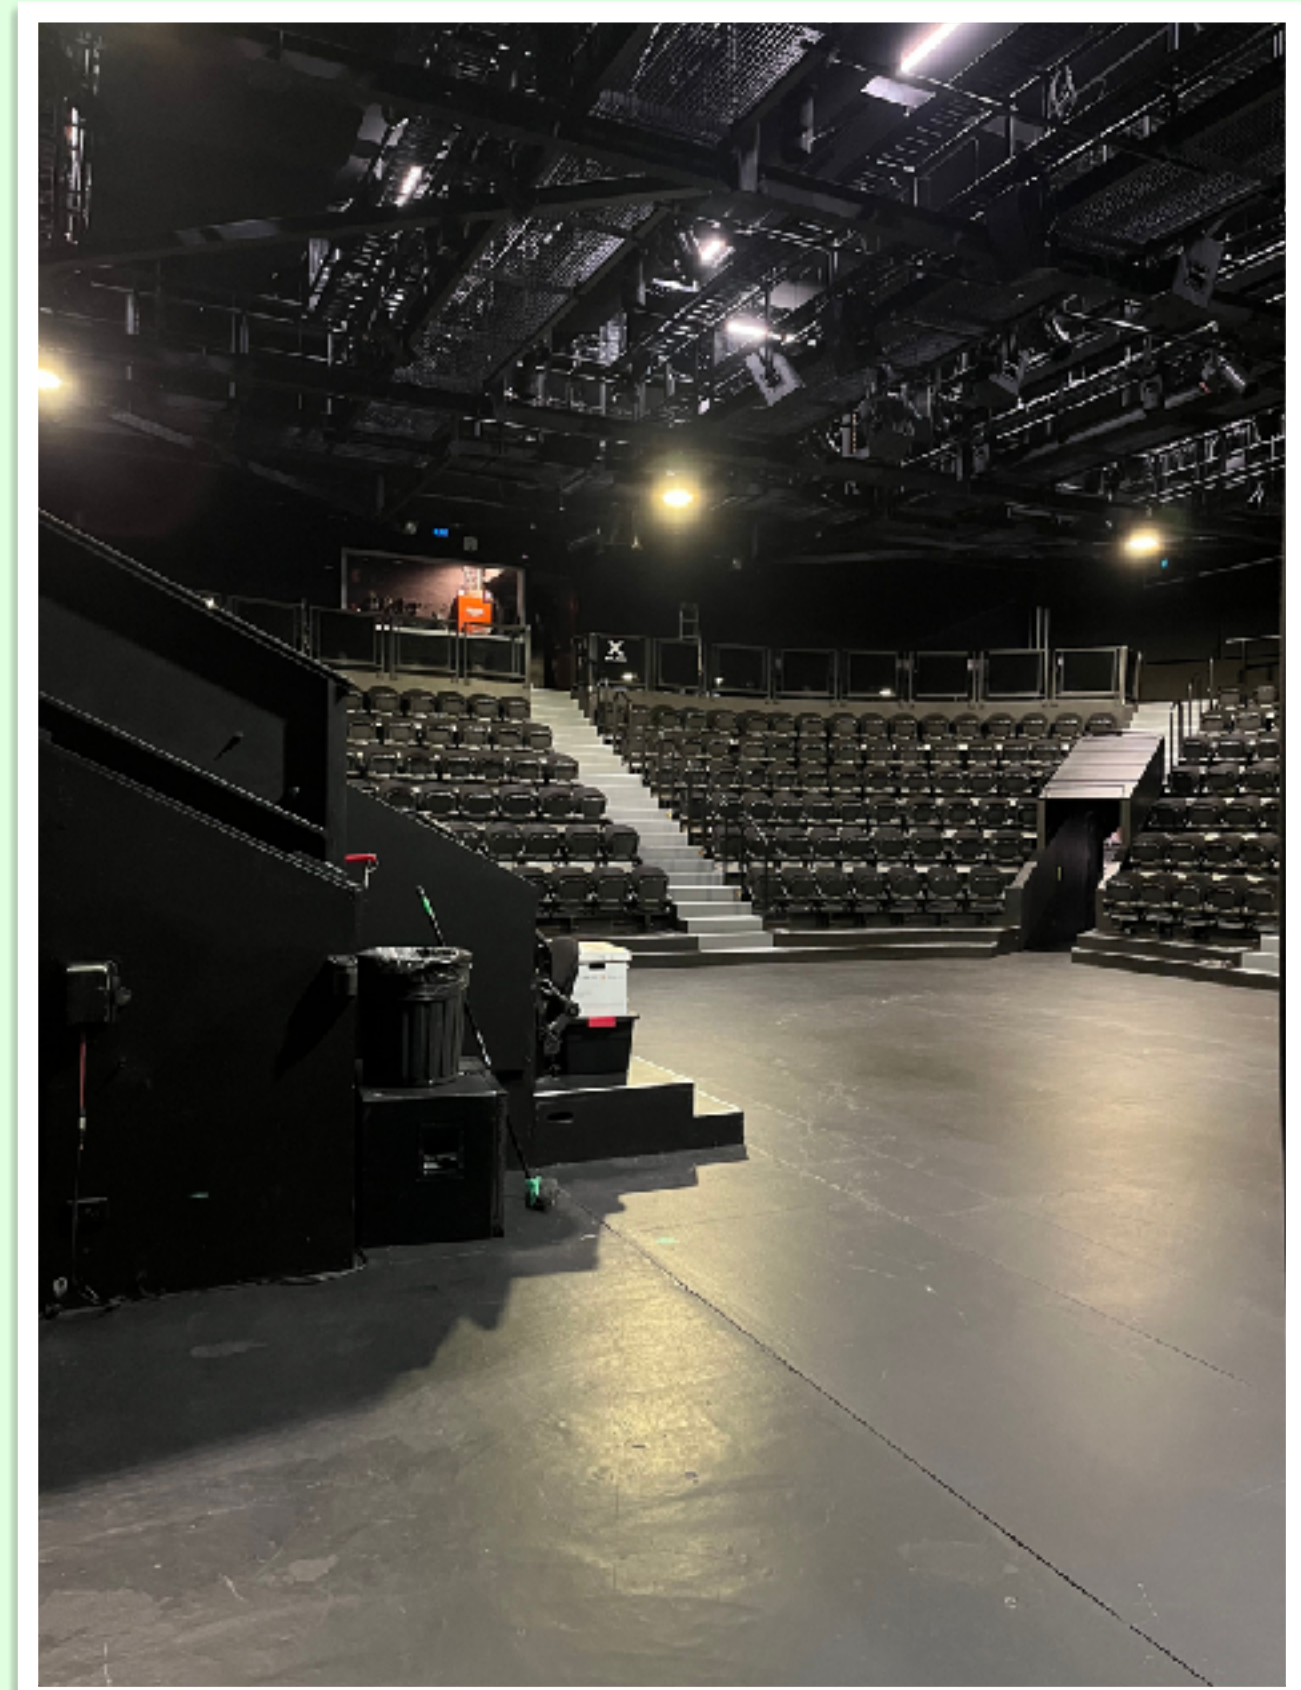

Time for the Show

When it's time to go inside someone will make an announcement "Please take your seats"

I will walk in with my ticket and find my seat.

It might be busy so I just have to wait my turn.

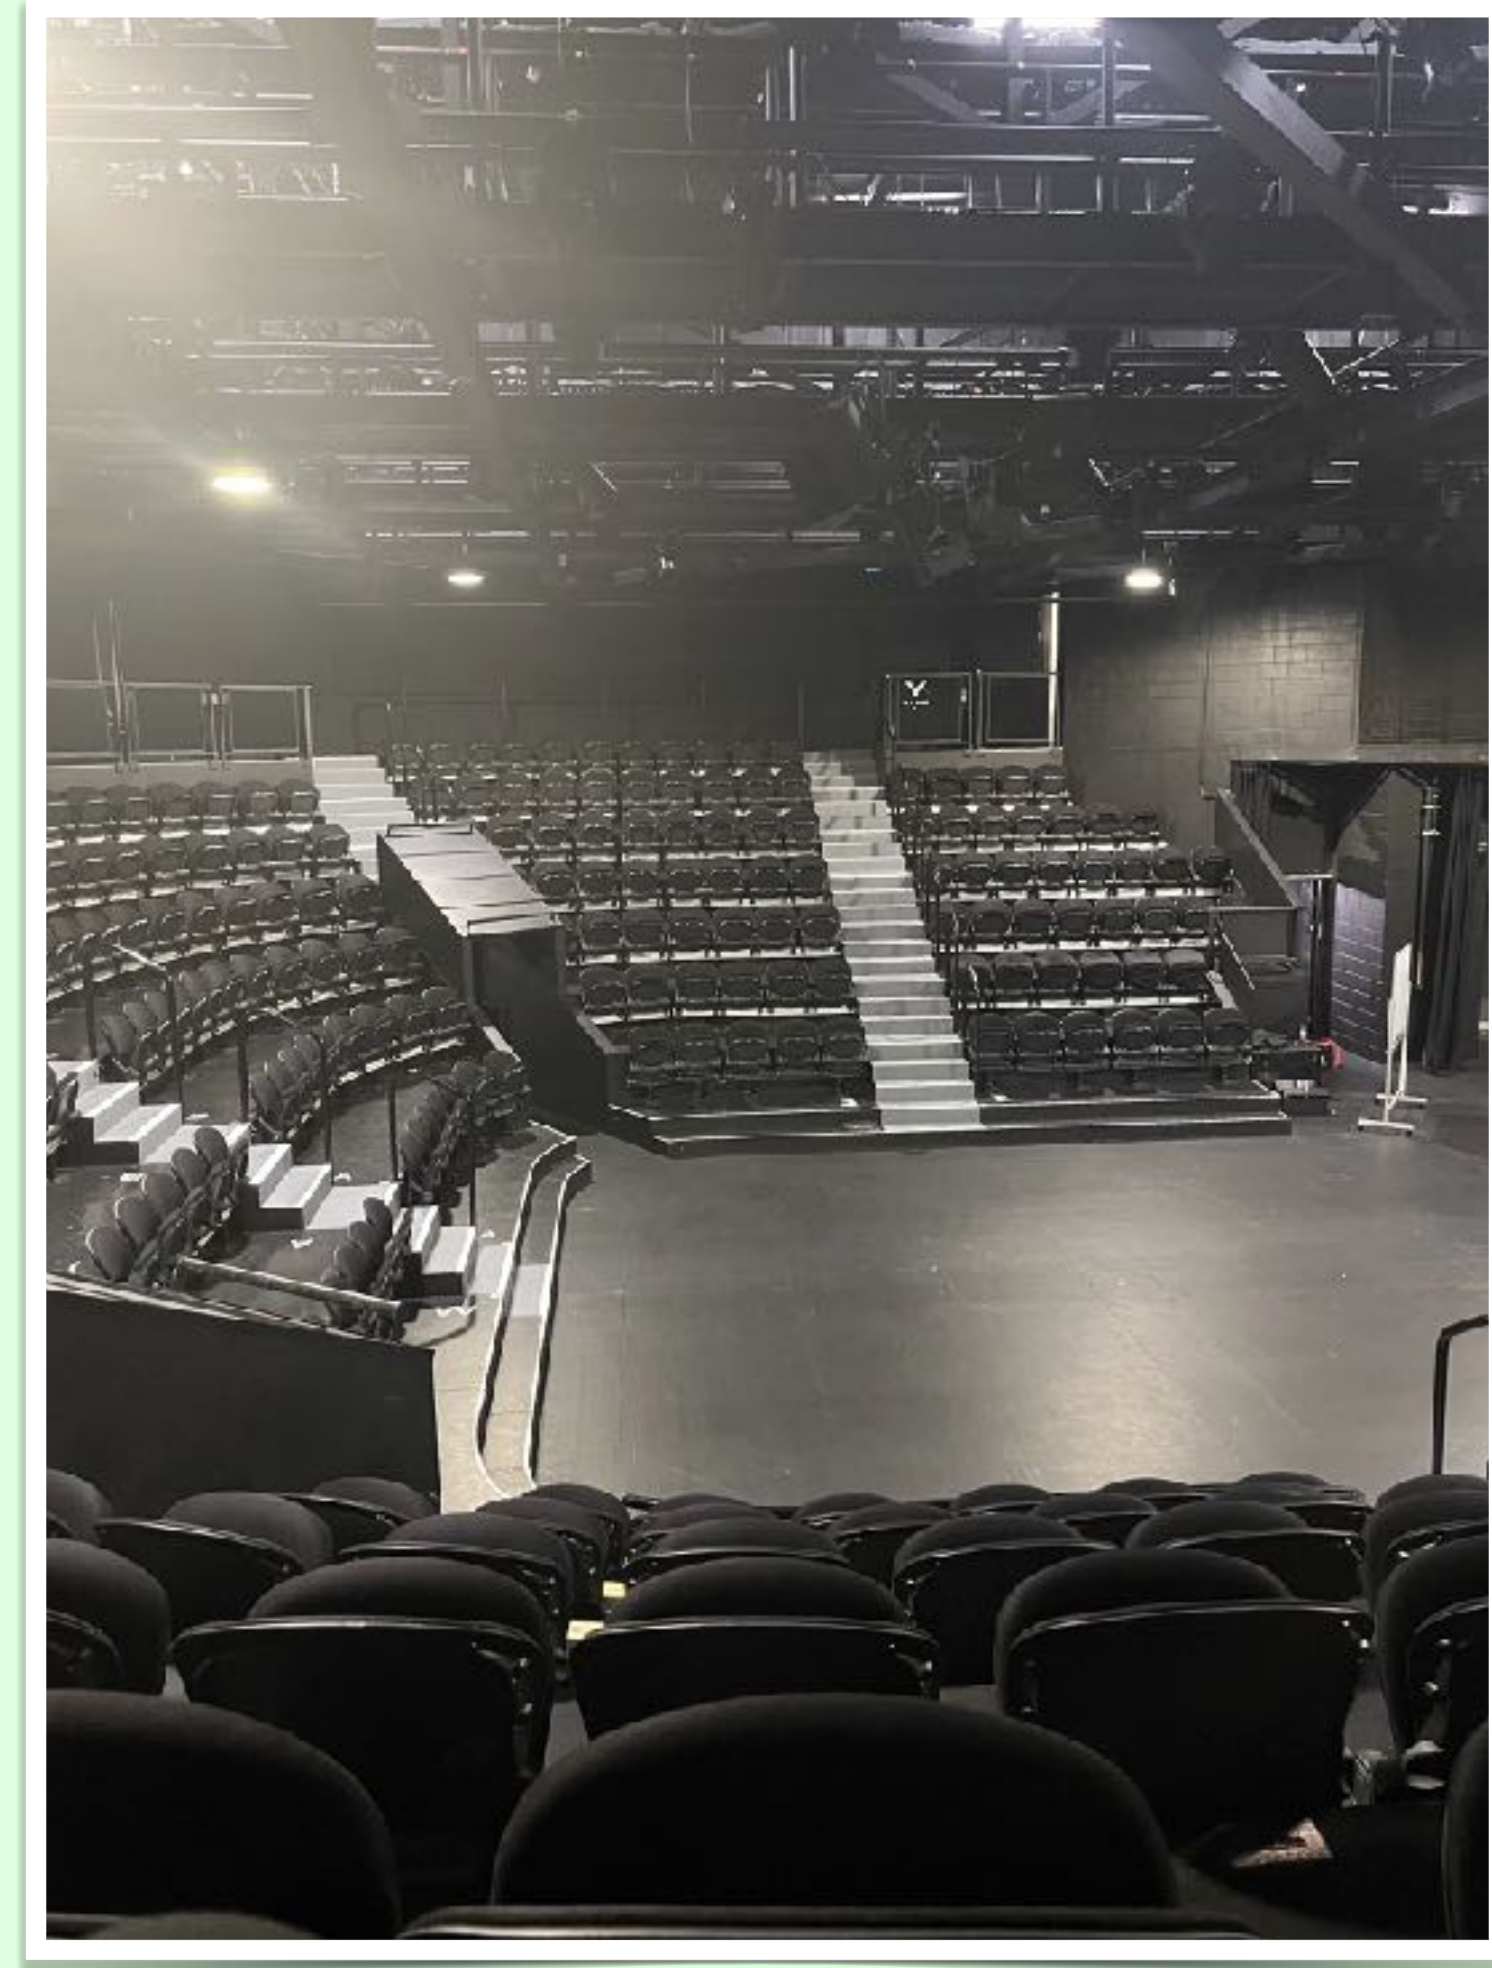

Inside the Theatre

The theatre is very big and has seats around the stage.

There will be a colourful path I can follow to my seats.

There will be colourful things on stage

I can look at them but not touch them

Audience

There might be lots of people there.

I might sit next to someone I don't know.

If I need help I can ask someone in a black shirt.

I can go to the Break-Out Space if I need to.

Show Starting

When the show starts the room will get darker and bright lights will shine on stage.

One of the actors will tell me some important information.

There will be 4 people on stage with music!

A big light-up sign saying “Big Feelings” will light up when one of the characters is sharing big feelings.

The Show

There will be music and dancing.

If I like something, I can use “spider fingers”. So I can wiggle my fingers instead of clapping.

If it is too loud of I need a break I can use headphones or go to the Break-Out Space.

Who will be onstage?

This is Mia

She plays Fancy

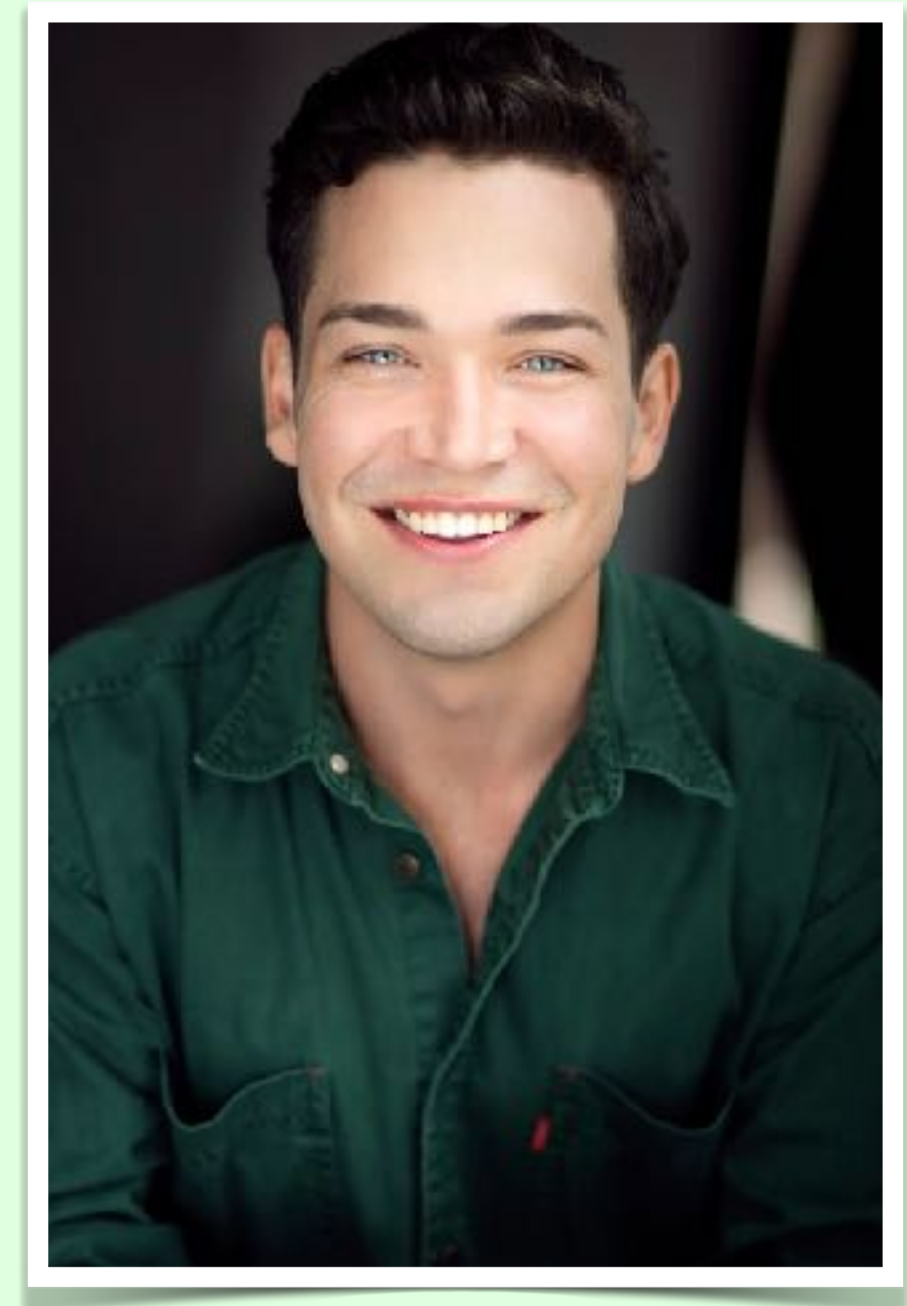

This is Irena

She plays Incy

This is Kate

She plays Busy

This is Tim

He plays Charlotte

Costumes

A costume is an outfit an actor wears to show the character they play. Here are some drawings of the costumes I will see.

The Show Is Finished

When the show is finished the lights will come back on.

Everyone will take turns walking out of the theatre.

I might need to wait for my turn.

Seeing a show is fun!
